We invite you to celebrate Australia with us in Japan.

“Australia enjoys a strategic partnership with Japan, a country with which we have shared values and interests. Australia now will enhance our cultural connections and demonstrate contemporary Australia as a creative and innovative partner, strengthening economic collaboration between our two countries.”

Hon. Richard Court AC
Ambassador to Japan
Scientists collaborating at Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre
“The trade and investment relationship between Australia and Japan has never been stronger. It is timely for our two business communities to celebrate these achievements and set our sights on building an even brighter future.”

Sir Rod Eddington AO
President of the Australia Japan Business Co-operation Committee
The moment is right for Australia to engage more deeply with Japan.
Japan is a vital strategic and economic partner for Australia. With deep bilateral ties, Australia and Japan share a special relationship based on common values and strategic interests.

Australia now will engage Japanese society through three themes:

— Innovation
  Science, research and innovation

— Creativity
  Design and creativity

— Australian lifestyle
  Sport, tourism and culinary excellence

Japan is Australia’s second largest overseas source of foreign direct investment after the United States and remains our second-largest export destination.

Australia now will strengthen Australian – Japanese relations and promote Australia as a key destination for tourists, innovators, researchers and investors. Highly successful promotions have already taken place in countries such as Germany, Brazil, Turkey, Indonesia, India and the United States.
Australia now – impress, connect and engage in the lead up to the Rugby World Cup 2019 and the Tokyo 2020 Olympics and Paralympics

Australia is a place of natural beauty, enviable lifestyle and offers world class opportunities in sport, the arts, culture, education, science, technology, finance and investment.

Japan is renowned as an innovation leader with a rich and unique culture.

Australia now will:

— Promote Australia’s finest entrepreneurs, artists, innovators and thinkers on a vibrant international platform
— Raise Australia’s profile as an innovative, contemporary and creative nation
— Explore Australia’s liveable cities and sustainable design culture to address challenges of the future such as energy and food security, healthcare and ageing
“The Australian love of sport will be on show at the Australia now festival in Japan throughout 2018. In the lead up to the 2019 Rugby World Cup and the 2020 Tokyo Olympics and Paralympics, Australia now will offer fantastic opportunities for players, sports fans and business people to enjoy world-class events whilst networking with an array of stakeholders in business and government.”

Bill Pulver
CEO of Australian Rugby Union
Australia now – building relationships for the future.

Partners from government, business, cultural, education, sports, science and research institutions will join us to build these relationships.

— Demonstrating Australia’s capabilities in innovation, science and technology
— Promoting Australia as an attractive investment and tourism destination
— Highlighting Australia’s world-class arts, business, research and education sectors
— Presenting Australian excellence and capability in sport and sport integrity
— Reaching out to young and influential Japan
— Illustrating Australia’s culturally rich and diverse background, unique Indigenous history and vibrant art, architecture and design practice
Demonstrating Australia’s cultural richness and diversity where, like Japan, contemporary society draws on its ancient past.

We will join with some of Japan’s best cultural festivals and venues to stage headline events in Tokyo along with smaller scale projects and collaborations in key locations across Japan.

Join the celebration in Japan

As an Australia now sponsor you will have an unrivalled opportunity to join leading Australian thinkers, innovators, entrepreneurs and artists to promote your business on a highly visible international platform in one of the world’s most exciting cities.

Your logo on Australia now material and programmed events will speak to business leaders and audiences throughout Japan – one of the most populous and innovative countries in the world.

Above all, you’ll have helped to celebrate Australia, its diversity and creativity.

Australia now partners enjoy:
— Association with this major festival of Australian culture in Japan
— Partnership recognition on Australia now marketing collateral (including printed program information, website and advertising campaign)
— Increased brand exposure to existing and new international stakeholders
— On-site branding through signage and displays at Australia now events and recognition in media kits, releases and interviews
— Networking opportunities with government and business leaders, creative industry specialists, science and technology experts, leading architects, urban designers, innovators and sporting identities from Australia and Japan
— Invitation packages to the Australia now launch, official gala opening events and ticketed program events

Celebrate Australia, its diversity and creativity.
“Australian jazz music symbolises the Australian culture of innovation and creativity. In 2018, we are excited to present a cross-cultural collaboration between Australian and Japanese musicians with jazz legend Paul Grabowsky. We are sure this will be one of the highlights of Australia now.”

Atsuko Yashima
Tokyo Jazz Festival, Executive Producer
